

Guidelines for nominations

When you consider nominations for President, Vice Presidents, and Board members, please consider the Nominations Committee's guiding points:

- 1. The nominated corporate body must be a current (paid) member of Dbl.
- 2. The nominated person must:
 - be willing to fulfill the responsibilities of their role.
 - have the resources and capacity to attend meetings.
 - have integrity, act in the best interests of Dbl, and approach the work in a positive way.

Concerning the officers - President and Vice Presidents:

In addition to the above, the nominated persons must be able to meet the following criteria:

- 1. The nominated person must:
 - be able to be unifying and demonstrate fairness and honesty.
 - be an effective communicator and have the ability to represent Dbl at the highest level.
- 2. A nominated Vice President should be willing and able to assume the duties of President, if necessary.
